

For the last two years Phil Goodacre has been part of our church as he undertook training for ordination at Ridley Hall in Cambridge.

Phil was ordained in the summer in Sheffield Cathedral, and has just sent us these pictures commemorating the great event. He's wearing the stole which the church gave him as a gift to thank him for all he did when he was with us.

The group photo below is 'crying out' for a caption –

Just what is Phil saying to the bishop?
